

WE NOMINATE

Charles Grosvenor Osgood, one of the great Princetonians of this century, who—as he enters upon his 56th year as a resident of the Princeton Community—returns to Town Topics' cover with the establishment of four University fellowships honoring his contribution as a teacher and scholar. At this point in history, when America is searching long and hard (and often with a marked lack of success) for teachers of distinction, it is highly appropriate to have this 89-year old associate of Woodrow Wilson's singled out for his interest in the development of the individual human being.

Nearly a decade ago, and some 14 years after he had retired from active teaching, Osgood was prevailed upon to serve as Princeton's annual Phi Beta Kappa Lecturer. He selected "The Proper Study" as his topic and proceeded to define liberal education in terms of present-day needs. It was, and is, his conviction that men should "do their work and rethink their thoughts to new agreement on a scale not shortened to the quaint focus of this little life, but adjusted to the infinite reaches apprehended by the faith that transcends knowledge."

With what one observer called "the wisdom of a poet and philosopher," Osgood, a native of Wellsboro, Pa., accepted in 1905 the challenge Wilson offered to his original "preceptor guys" and proceeded to develop his famous "English Literature and the Classics," one of the early inter-departmental courses that helped oust confining formalism in favor of unifying programs of study. As a teacher beloved for his "open houses," and for his capacity for evoking discussion, Osgood inspired the sort of affection which led former students in 1941 to bring into being anonymously the Osgood Book Fund for the purchase of books in the University Library.

Osgood, for 15 years a Trustee of the Princeton Public Library and long a member of the New Jersey Library Commission, actually relinquished his teaching responsibilities two years early (in 1937) in order to devote more time to writing and research. Author of "The Voice of England," celebrated history of English literature, and "Poetry As a Means of Grace," he supervised the definitive edition of the works of poet Edmund Spenser. The first volume appeared in 1932, the eighth in 1947 and the index in 1956, shortly after Osgood celebrated his 85th birthday.

A member of the Yale Class of 1894, Osgood completed his graduate training at Yale and taught at both the University of Colorado and Yale before moving to Princeton in the summer of 1905. Elected to the rank of full professor in 1913, he served as chairman of the University's Department of English from 1918 until 1926 and seven years later, became the eighth incumbent of the Holmes Professorship of Belles Lettres, succeeding the late George McLean Harper as the occupant of Princeton's oldest endowed chair.

For understanding that the Western World needs teachers who, "however learned and expert, transcend their specialty with a constant sense of its final value in human terms"; for seeing that vocationalism, specialization and the splintering of knowledge contribute little to the ongoing development of liberal education; for exemplary service to his fellow men; he is Town Topics' nominee for

URBAN RENEWAL DELAYED

Indefinitely by Court Action.
In a decision of far-reaching implications that may radically alter future development of the heart of the Borough, The State Supreme Court this week placed a total block on Princeton's plans for a progressive Urban Renewal program.

The Court declared invalid a resolution passed 18 months ago by Borough Council which designated a portion of the Hurlfish-John-Green-Witherspoon Street area as "blighted." The decision renders temporarily useless to the municipality some five years of planning and, inasmuch as no new action can be taken before the present personnel of the governing body changes in 1961, delays new action for the better part of a year.

Although the situation has not been fully studied by either the Housing Authority or the Bor-

Holiday Hopes

Nothing more we would
Than pouring rain on July Fourth;
So Weather Man, be kind and wise,
And send us sunny,
cloudless skies!
—ROHM N. KANDEL

Naturally, the Man was he-ling around a good deal about the chances of fair weather for the year's second big three-day weekend. His mood was guardedly optimistic.
Thursday and Friday would hardly be dealt out of the top drawer, he commented, what with heat, humidity and showers chasing each other across the countryside. Beginning Saturday, however, matters are expected to take a turn for the better, with generally fair weather expected — temperature still a few degrees above normal.

ough Council, the court ruling may be near-fatal to the urban renewal project, since the area must be classed as "blighted" by Council before Federal funds are forthcoming. In addition to this direct consequence, the decision has important implications for both the governing body of the municipality and the University.
The unanimous ruling of the court set aside Council's action of December 1958 on the basis of conflict of interest. It said that the vote was invalid because two Princeton University Professors, Councilmen Richard A. Lester and Alfred E. Sorenson, supported the action when the University stood to gain indirectly by the urban renewal project via its controlling interest in Princeton Municipal Improvement Inc., a property holder in the area.

Because of the Independence Day holiday Monday.

Town Topics' deadline for all display advertising for next week's issue will be Friday at 5 p.m.

At the time, Councilmen Den
D. Coyle and Richard Colman, both employees of the University, abstained from voting on the issue, but the two professors registered their affirmative opinions, claiming academic freedom from the conflict of interest clause. Although not questioning motivations of the two professors, the court held that "the long standing association which gives these men security in their positions could tend to bind their loyalties to the University in such a manner that they would be interested in all matters affecting the institution."

The court also closed a possible loophole by which the Council could have acted on the matter of urban renewal. In the opinion, written by Justice Albert E. Burl-ing, it said that the vote was not of "such vital importance" as to permit an exception to the conflict of interest regulation.

Urban Renewal Stalled.
The upshot of the decision is that it appears that urban renewal have to mark time at least for the foreseeable future," according to one Council member. Little can be done on the project, which has been planned for the past five years, until the Council can, somehow, legally designate the area as "blighted."

Apparently, it will be difficult to do this, at least before next January. To take any action, Council requires a quorum of at least four members, and under the present situation of four councilmen with University affiliation, there is no way one can be obtained without at least two of these members expressing an opinion. It is questionable whether a vote with two University men opposing urban renewal and the major breaking the tie, would be acceptable, so the solution is to wait, as the court put it, "until the Council is free to act." This would be after New Year's Day, when the proportions will be changed.

The court decision could also quite possibly have far reaching

Implications for Borough Council. It calls into question actions of Council with regard to the University itself or any organizations in which the University has a large interest.

Recognizing such problems, the opinion admitted that the decision may limit the number of University employees who can "safely" hold municipal offices. "This could exclude from participation in local government persons unusually qualified for such service; it is safe to assume that such participation by the persons whose interests we hold here to be disqualified was in fact motivated by a high sense of responsibility for community affairs. But the application of the basic principle here involved cannot depend upon an appraisal of the nature of the institution concerned or of the character of the individual officeholders," it stated.

Since Councilmen Lester and Sorenson are not seeking re-election in November, and only one University employee, Robert W. Van De Velde, is a candidate, the situation cannot but be rectified then. In the future, however, the Borough (and quite possibly the Township as well) will have to seek the number of University employees under four if it is to avoid problems.

Alumni, Too? At the same time, the decision, calls into question the University's position in such matters. Since a professor with tenure cannot be discharged, and is thus in a slightly different situation from a non-employee, there is a question of where this will stop.

The opinion notes a case (Zell vs. Borough of Roseland) in which a planning board member was disqualified from voting on a map affecting the church of which he was a member. Could not alumni officers and class officials thus come under the conflict of interest regulation?

It should be noted that the Court did find in favor of the Borough in three procedural counts, involving the method of notification, the timing of the original action and the necessity for a public hearing by the Council after one was held by the Planning Board. It failed to rule on whether or not the actual determination of "blight" was proper, considering only the conflict of interest on the Council.

The case against the Borough, instituted last October by property owners in the affected area, was argued by Charles R. Sperler, Ralph S. Mink and John F. McCarthy Jr., the Mayor and Council; and Richard J. Casey, the Planning Board. Judge Arthur Lane of the Superior Court supported the University, and the Supreme Court was acting on the appeal. Owing to a legal technicality, the Superior Court will actually have to make the final ruling, but will be under directions from the Supreme Court.

ROUND UP

The thermometer has been edging upward during the past ten days, with only one maximum reading during the time below 80... however, this is cool in comparison to the final week of June 1959, when five consecutive trips above 90, plus high humidity, were recorded... Last Friday's thunder and wind storm produced a quarter of an inch of rain within five minutes shortly

Members of Mercer Engine Co. A whale that lived in a specially designed trailer in the city of Trenton for the past five months was finally deported, following numerous legal ramifications, only to have the truck that was hauling it northward on U.S. 1 break down in Plainsboro Township, opposite the Princeton State Police barracks... the truck reportedly had a cracked engine block and it could be that the whale would make that section of U.S. 1 its home for a while.

Ten Years Ago: TOWN TOPICS, June 29, 1950: A word at Princeton was shaken by Communist invasion of South Korea and this country's immediate decision to contest the crossing of the 38th parallel. TOWN TOPICS had this to say:

"The Sky Darkened: All of a sudden, Korea was a part of Nassau Street. It wasn't necessary to be an expert in international relations to see how clear the implications were: Russian-dominated forces had made an independent nation half-way round the world and President Truman, backed by the UN, had resorted to armed intervention to call their bluff. Less than five short years after World War II had ended, the two giants who had emerged the victors were face to face, snarling their dislike for the other's way of life."

Richard A. Hogarty, 16-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hogarty, 15 Chestnut Street, won a one-sided victory in the state-wide contest for "Boy Governor of New Jersey" at the annual Boys' State convention in New Brunswick... a parade was scheduled to wind through the town to Palmer Stadium as the fore-runner of the annual fireworks display... Theodore Potts began to accept rental applications for the $3 million shopping center in Princeton Township, announcing that ground would be broken in July.

Because so many street signs were being stolen by the romantically inclined, Township Committee Chairman B. Franklin Bunn suggested that Lovers Lane be renamed... he advocated that it become an extension of Olden Lane, but the protests favoring retention of Lovers Lane were such that the economy-minded committee bowed to popular fancy.

SEMINARY PLAN OPPOSED

Residents Hix Housing Project, a determined group of residents of North Road objected strenuously to the Princeton Theological Seminary plan for a housing project in the area at Monday night's meeting of the Township Board of Adjustment. After two and a half hours of discussion which resembled court proceeding, Board chairman Leonard C. Johnson agreed to continue the matter at the next regular meeting of the Board, set for July 25.

Under fire was a 42-unit project on the Seminary-owned 92 acres on the Great Road between North Road and Rosedale Road. The project, which would be the first step towards a 100 to 150-unit housing development and "apartments," would be in the corner of the property nearest North Road.

In order to proceed with its plans, the Seminary requires both a special permit to use the land, which lies largely in the R-1 zoning district, for "educational" purposes, and variances in the zoning regulations for the R-1 district to put up the five, two-story, multiple-family units it proposes. The Seminary requested the Board to grant the former and to give a favorable recommendation on the latter to the Township Committee, which must take the final decision with regard to the variances.

J. Seymour Montgomery, representing an eight-family hard core of opposition, made both the successful motion to continue the hearing and a motion for dismissal, which was not granted. He tried to show how the project conflicted with numerous points of the zoning ordinance, claiming that the principle is whether the public "can rely on the zoning ordinance to protect their investment in property."

Mr. Montgomery picked at the presentation of the Seminary's case by lawyer Henry Stratton, asking questions with regard to the type of heating planned, source of utilities, exact time schedule and plans for the remainder of the plot, screening by trees and provisions for laundry. The ten Township residents speaking against the project, seven of whom were members of the group represented by Mr. Montgomery, raised questions concerning the way in which utilities would be brought in, increases in school-going population and payments to the Township by the Seminary.

The group for which Mr. Montgomery spoke includes Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Bedford, Mr. and Mrs. James Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Woodbridge, Mr. and Mrs. G. Victor Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Aul, all of North

Road; Mr. and Mrs. William Bonthron, the Great Road; and Mr. and Mrs. David H. McAlpin, Pretty Brook Road. Others opposing the project at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Fleming, Pretty Brook Road and Mrs. Henry Smyth, Lafayette Road West.

Seminary's Case. On the other side, the Seminary's case was presented by Henry Stratton, with testimony from the architect, landscape architect and Seminary President John J. McCord. Mr. Stratton stressed that the site would be the "most satisfactory" solution to the "critical and urgent" need to expand the Seminary's facilities. Dr. McCord explained that the housing units, which would be for both students and young faculty members, were necessitated by the increased enrollment since the war and, at the same time, the larger percentage of married students. He pointed out that the united development of the plot allowing large green areas would be preferable to subdividing it.

The specific variances required by the seminary to build the proposed units involve the prohibition of more than one building on a lot (it does not propose to subdivide) and the yard and height requirements, which Mr. Stratton claimed were not designed for multiple-family units. He noted, however, that the buildings will be separated by at least 45 feet and will be set back from any property lines by at least 125 feet. Other variances required concern the prohibition against look-alike buildings and the floor area requirements. In general, Mr. Stratton claimed that these requirements were "unreal and unreasonable" when applied to multiple-family units.

PLANS COMPLETED

For Fireworks Display. Plans have been completed for the annual Fourth of July Fireworks display to be held in Palmer Stadium on Monday night. Nathaniel McKee, general chairman of the committee, reported the admission for adults will be $1, while children under 12 will be admitted free if accompanied by an adult.

American Legion Post 458 "Saxifraga," an all-girl drum and bugle corps, will supply music from 8 p.m. until it is sufficiently dark to begin the fireworks. Under the direction of James Whitlow and Harold Hinkson Jr., the color guard team of Post 76, American Legion, will present the colors preceding the display. Refreshments will be available.

The committees are: William Birch, tickets; Fred Klink, finance; Robert C. Schmidt, publicity; Eric Jungberg and Robert C. Schmidt, guards; Sgts. Lester

TOWN TOPICS: Mon of the week was Thomas E. Murray, 82-year old veteran of the Princeton Fire Department whose presence in the annual parade and inspection marked the 50th year in which he had served the town in this capacity.

States of America will each receive 24 percent of the residue of her estate. The latter organization is located in Washington, D. C.

All Miss Myrick's clothing, books, jewelry and personal effects have been left to the Caney Creek Community Center, Inc., Pippa Passes, Ky. The Caney Creek organization administers charity to mountain people. In addition to personal effects, the Community Center has been willied 24 percent of the residue.

Burt E. Myrick of 9 Princeton Avenue, brother of Miss Myrick, is to receive the remainder, 38 percent. Mr. Myrick, together with Henry R. Martin of 100 Dodes Lane and the First National Bank of Princeton, has been named executor of the will. Miss Myrick, who died on June 11 at age 72, died specifically "dogs" or "cats" in her will, but used the word "animals" in describing the use of her estate.

14-YEAR OLD BITTEN

Search For Missing Dog. Linda Higgins, 14, daughter of Mrs. Clifford Higgins of Laurel Avenue, Kingston, was bitten by a boxer dog last Wednesday. A search for the dog, which is tan with a black muzzle, has been unsuccessful. If the dog is not found by Saturday young Laura will have to undergo a 21-day series of anti-rabies injections. The dog was wearing a wide leather collar with a double row of studs on its edges. Anyone seeing a dog matching the above description should call Mrs. Higgins at WA 1-8470.

BIRTH LIST

Nine Children Arrive. Nine children, six of them boys, were born to area residents last week in Princeton Hospital.
Parents of boys include: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Michie, Rocky Hill, June 19; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Arch, 40-C Butler Avenue, June 20; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Merkin, 34 Rosedale Avenue, Roosevelt; Mr. and Mrs. William Wilkerson, 55 Littlebrook Road, both on June 21; Mr. and Mrs. Bevel Cramer, One Mile Road, Cranbury; and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Finckh, 465 Walnut Lane, both on June 22.
Parents of daughters are: Mr. and Mrs. David Gearhart, Schalks Road, Plainsboro, June 20; Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Kehoe, Hazlet Road, Princeton Junction, June 24; and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald

July Fourth Warning

Princeton Borough Police Chief Raymond Mondone has warned all to keep the Fourth of July safe. "Since it is a direct violation of State law to sell, possess or discharge fireworks," the Chief said, "we do not expect children or adults to use fireworks of any kind during the Fourth."
"Our town," Chief Mondone declared, "is fortunate to have a supervised fireworks display at the Stadium to satisfy the pleasure of its citizens. We realize," the Chief continued, "that fireworks are imported from other states where sale is legal, but we absolutely forbid the use of fireworks in this town."

Vendors are warned that the law prohibits the offer for sale of any blank cartridge, toy pistol, toy cannon or toy gun in which explosives are used. Likewise the use of firecrackers, torpedoes, sky rockets, Roman candles, bombs, sparklers, or other fireworks containing explosive or inflammable compound is prohibited.

TWO SIDES OF THE TRIANGLE: Jack Lemmon, owner of a busy apartment, has words for Shirley MacLaine, who is also the object of Fred MacMurray's affections, in "The Apartment" at the Playhouse.

Notes Of The Theatres

poising him with tense and dramatic effect.

Audrey Ward as the mother who wraps George in protective excuses and substitutes him for her lost son in the vacuum of her life, gave a telling but nervous performance. Peggy Pope provided much-needed comic relief in her unbelievably good characterization of Norah whose life has been beaten out of her, leaving her colorless, awkward, suppressed, "just a hole in the air." Other hit parts were handled reasonably well by Richard Hudson as Mr. Colwyn-Stuart, Roy Bacon as Mr. Webb and Frederick Royn whose stock character of the promoter was rather overdone in spite of the fact that his red bow tie and brass buttons were appreciated, costume-wise.

Battis, Peggy Allison Excel. Two of the finest performances can be claimed by two of Princeton's familiar actors. Emory Battis as Percy, appears in his third excellent role of the year (Don Junn in Jell, Age of Anxiety). With consummate skill, he has lured Percy into a vivid, complete character and he is largely responsible for one of the great scenes which occurs when he and George spar with the teeter-totter Colwyn-Stuart when his brand of faith.

What Mr. Battis can do with a match stick, a steady eye or a dead silence speaks louder than words. Peggy Allison, well known on all Princeton stages, creates unforgotably that empty mind, egotistical, perfunctory "teen-ager" Jose who gyrates in and out of tapered slacks and never knows what it's all about.

Because of the unique pace and less than a peak performance, this opening night will not have been "Epiphany's" best showing of the run, but in any case, it was good and stimulating theatre and as hid by the management, we shall go back again and bring our friends.

"UNDERPANTS" TO APPEAR. Second offering by Playere. "The Underpants," a comedy detailing just what happens when an undergarment once considered unmentionable is lost at a parade for the Kaiser, will be the University Players' second offering of the season. The farce will run Tuesday through Sunday, July 5-10, at Murray Theatre.

Peggy Pope and Gerald Hiken will star in the American premiere of the Carl Sternheim comedy, which has been translated and adapted from the German by Eric Bentley. Miss Pope, seen as Norah Elliot in the Players' current production of "Epiphany for George Dillon," has appeared both at the City Center in New York and on television. Mr. Hiken, who has acted on Broadway and in television productions, will make his first appearance with the Players.

Roger Grant will make his Princeton debut as director of "The Underpants." He has served as acting instructor for the American Shakespeare Festival at Stratford and directed last summer's tour of "Intimate Relations" and "The Moon is Blue."

TIMELY COMEDY SET

For Bucks County Playhouse. An updated version of the 1946 Pulitzer Prize-winning comedy "State of the Union" will open for two weeks at the Bucks County Playhouse July 4. The Democratic Convention preliminary which concerns selection of a presidential candidate will star Faye Emerson, with John Dargrey, Sloan Simpson and Frederick Tozere.

Producer Michael Ellis' revision of the play has been approved by the playwrights, Lindsay and Crouse, and will be the only production permitted anywhere this summer. Robert Caldwell, a Playhouse regular, will direct the comedy. Carol Bruce in "Petit-coat Fever" is at New Hope through Saturday.

2ND WEEK FOR REDHEAD

At Robertville, "Redhead" enters its second week at St. John Terrell's Music Circus, Lambertville, next Tuesday. The Broadway musical comedy hit stars June Erisson, who has played Shakespearean comedy, was standby for Judy Holiday in "Belts Are Ringing" and has sung at the Reuben Bleu, the Downs-stairs Room and the Blue Angel in New York.

Appearing with Miss Erisson are Art Matthews, William Pearson and Linda King. The Louis MacMillan production will continue at the Music Circus through July 10.

THE PLAYHOUSE

The Apartment (June 29-July 5) is one of those light-but-serious affairs blessed with a spicy script and top performers. From an adult standpoint, the dialogue and situations are newsworthy, while the comedy and pithos are well portrayed by Jack Lemmon, Shirley MacLaine and Fred MacMurray.

True to its name, the plot revolves around an apartment, inhabited by Lemmon but loaned out to his insurance company bosses for activities which are—Continued on Page 8

IT'S NEW To Us

HOLIDAY SUGGESTIONS

For the Fourth, if you take national holidays seriously and make of the Fourth of July a fireworks event, drop a nickel in a parking meter near Palmer Square and snap up a few accessories for your celebration.

Begin at the Joen Shop and let Mother set the style for a hot, probably humid, but certainly happy Fourth in a bold red, white and blue striped, sleeveless dress made of a soft and cool Tricetate Arnel fabric. It's designed by Muriel Ryan whose collection includes some gay flag-colored prints for junior misses. These are peasant-type sun dresses, buttoned down the front, with touches of rick-rack.

At the Clothes Line, for size 1, 2, and 3 Mothers will find for the "Toddler Miss" a Bishop-smocked, drip-dry cotton by Peter Pan, bright with red and white candy stripes, and for the infant brother, there is a mere wisp of a sunsuit in red and white seersucker with a patch pocket in the pocket of a pall or sailboat, an outfit accompanied by a plastic pall or sailboat to match and in toto costing but $1.95.

Other feminine relatives, size 10 to 20, find at Clayton's an inexpensive, simply-styled sleeveless dress in a textured, almost sculptured cotton by Wayne Maid. It comes in blue and white as well as grey or pink and white. To add a fillop to the wardrobe, try a straw wig complete with pigtail in shades of red, bronze or gold or one of the gay Italian straw bonnets.

Don't forget Father or the high school graduate who sells off the drowsy in a belted checked, short-sleeved shirt from Douglas MacDaid which also is proud of a fine new light weight Oxford shirt with short sleeves "to be worn for dress or sport." Make a last stop at Stone's Linen Shop for a big plushy bath towel or tee-shirt in patriotic colors.

There are short coveralls with peaked caps to match, togas and towels with slits to go along to the beach, sandbox, or just a sunning in the back yard. Bright blue and red aprons for little persons have big pockets filled with color books and crayons for boys and kitchen utensils for girls and for fun for anywhere. When the Fourth is over, in your red, white and blue, you'll be all set for that flying trip to France and dancing in the streets on Bastille Day.

TALE OF A SHIRT

Sell 'Em, Clean 'Em. The University Cleaners and Laundry, which has been washing and ironing shirts since the days of the Irish Washerwoman, is now popping its buttons (you should pardon the phrase) with pride over a line of shirts which will be not

Water Rocket!

Bored with just plain land rockets? Zinder's has a water rocket which may even send you into orbit over Lake Carnegie, for all we know.

Made of molded styrofoam (like a very solid Christmas angel), it's five feet long, shaped on the bottom to provide a little keel, and generally speaking, very much like an ironing board without legs. Use it as a surfboard, float, raft or canoe paddle.

Weights practically nothing, of course, and won't give in to heat, cold, sun, salt water or blustery boys. Costs $7.95. There's a little one, two and a half-feet long, called a Gym Rocket. It's $3.98.

only laundered but sold right at the University counter.

Called "Registered" shirts, they are fine, single-needle, custom-tailored shirts designed and developed by people in the laundry industry and available only from members of the Registered Shirt Laundry Association. University Cleaners belongs.

You pay $2.69 for a shirt valued, so our appraisers tell us, at $5. Choose from three styles: the President, with a fused collar; the Senator with a soft-pressed permanent stay collar, or the Governor, with a button-down collar. The Governor is Oxford, the other two fine cotton broadcloth.

University is absolutely sold on the quality of these shirts, and to back up their confidence, they make you an offer: buy a shirt (or several!) and have it laundered only at University. If anything happens to the shirt within a year, you'll get another one free.

This guarantee is flexible in your favor, too, which means that, if you're a traveling man you can have your shirt washed by some hotel or other and still take advantage of the guarantee. It's the general, month-in-month out laundering over a period of a year that University is concerned with.

You may buy these shirts at any of the three University branches: 30 Moore Street, 76 Nassau Street, or Princeton Shopping Center. And if you have a charge account at the University Cleaners, you may buy them that way.

1) SKIP TO MY LOU

And Invite a Friend. The Skip Skip at Zinder's is designed for agile 10-year-olds or for 35-year-olds who have had three martinis. It's a slick to which has been attached a plastic cord, to which has been attached a rubber ball for weight.

Put the point of the stick on the ground as a pivot, and swing it around, jumping over the cord every time it comes under your feet. (Who, me?)

The Rat Race (July 6-12) proves that the timeworn story of country boy and girl in big city can still be tolerably interesting. The only reason for a decent result from such hackneyed material is that the country boy happens to be Tony Curtis (his third appearance on a Princeton screen in the past month) and Debbie Reynolds.

Given Curtis as a musician from Milwaukee trying his luck in New York and Miss Reynolds as a dance contest winner turned dance hall hostess in Manhattan, the average movie-goer should be able to fill in the remainder of the plot. "The Rat Race" is saved from certain death, however, by the performances of the two stars; the direction of Robert Mulligan; and the music of Elmer Bernstein, rendered by such top musicians as Joe Bushkin, Sam Butera and Gerry Mulligan. The whole thing is further improved by the touches added by the lesser actors: Jack Oakie, as the friendly bartender; May Medford, owner of a cheap rooming house; and Don Rickles, the dance-hall operator.

In short, it is one of those productions which can be acceptable despite the unoriginal plot.

THE GARDEN

Some Like It Hot (June 27-July 2), which appeared at the Playhouse just a year ago, turned out to be one of the best comedies of 1959. A wild, star-studded farce, it features Marilyn Monroe, Tony Curtis and Jack Lemmon, with smaller roles filled by Joe E. Brown, George Raft and Pat O'Brien. The entire plot involves the fact that Lemmon and Curtis find it necessary to join an all-girl band in order to escape gangland vengeance (the scene is Chicago in the 1920's), but Billy Wilder's sparkling direction has turned it into a vehicle of rare humor.

The acting of the principals is fine, and Miss Monroe, as Sugar Kane, the band's vocalist, again shows her intuitive talent for light comedy. While this department holds no brief for most female impersonators, the handling of the gimmick in this film should offend no one.

"Some Like It Hot" is a series of funny scenes, the best of which is probably Wilder's hilarious re-enactment of the St. Valentine's Day massacre, with George Raft leading the gunmen. The fact that this scene comes off as perfectly as it does is the highest tribute to everyone connected with this outstanding picture. Recommended.

A Summer Place (July 4-6) features Richard Egan, Dorothy McGuire, Sandra Dee, Arthur Kennedy and Constance Ford in a brutally frank saga of extramarital and premarital love that poses a lot of pertinent moral questions but fails to come up with very satisfactory answers. In Technicolor, the film is an adaptation of the best-seller of the same name by Sloan ("The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit") Wilson.

Miss McGuire and Egan were lovers in their youth when he was a lifeguard at the exclusive resort where her wealthy family spent the summers. They married other people and had one child each; conveniently, one girl (Sandra Dee) and one boy (Troy Donahue). Now the situations are reversed: Egan is wealthy and he brings his family to the inn operated by Miss McGuire and spouse, who are in somewhat straitened circumstances. In a word, Miss Dee's dad and Donahue's mom realize they were meant for each other all along, have an affair, get divorces and marry each other. Meanwhile, the youngsters themselves fall in love and marry after it is discovered that Miss Dee is going to have a baby. Performances are generally good despite the shallowness of the screenplay.

"A Summer Place" appeared at the Playhouse last December. Beginning with this production and running throughout the summer, the Garden will discontinue matinees except at 3 p.m. Saturdays.

NO ROSDALE SEWER

Committee Downes Proposal 3-0. The Township Committee has voted down the Rosedale Road sewer project which aroused such vigorous opposition from residents of the area. At a special meeting last week, it gave up the project for a line from Galbreath Drive East to Galbreath Drive West by a vote of 3-0 and settled on a shortened line which will barely turn the corner to Rosedale.

The governing body had tabled the proposal earlier in the week following a public hearing at which a number of Rosedale Road property owners registered their objections to paying for a sewer when they already have efficient septic systems. It decided against the sewer as supported by the Board of Health because of the opposition and a lack of proof that septic systems, with one exception, were not functioning properly.

Mayor R. Kenneth Fairman and Committeeman Stanley C. Snoyer were present for both the public hearing and the final vote on the proposal. Committeeman William Marvel, originally against tabling the question, joined Thomas P. Cook and John F. Mount in defeating it.

The ordinance covering the new, shortened sewer for Rosedale Road will be introduced on Tuesday at the next regular session of the Committee. As now planned, the sewer would go up Galbreath Drive East, turn the corner and go down Rosedale Road for only two lots.

Also on the agenda for next week's session are public hearings on the assessor's report on the improvement of Van Dyck Road and the sewer running parallel to North Harrison Street across from the Shopping Center. Both projects are completed and assessments in order.

A Parade Turns a "City" Into a Small Town

A parental privilege that the younger generation may consider an overindulgence is recalling with affection and glamour the old days of steam locomotives, circus wagons and home-made ice cream. There's a fair chance that the up-coming generation will indulge in some of the same, specifically on the subject of the annual inspection of the Princeton Fire Department.

It was held Friday evening in a pause between crashing thunder and swags of lightning, the traditional parade down Nassau Street to Olden Avenue. The town was quiet; people indoors during the rain. The Stellerator and the cyclotrons and the electronic computers were presumably quiet too, in their various lairs in and around town. There was even no sound from the stirrings of genius.

The bands attracted to the rain-soaked streets dressed-up children like moths from cocoons in holiday after-supper mood. They were joined leisurely by relaxed and sociable parents. Suddenly, Princeton had become a small American town again.

Firemen of the three companies lined up for review; the carriages waved in the Chief's silver horns. There was a military band and the band of Hamilton Township with a baby drum majorette and a penchant for "The Saints." The equipment, shiniest perfect, was inspected and approved by members of the Council; firemen and Rescue Squad recognized for another year of faithful service.

There was the fest of Fourth of July celebrations and community sings. If you thought back far enough, or in a remembering ear, the clank of a trolley. Whether you had lived in Princeton 60 years 20 or two, there was apparent here a vibrant symbol of America.

It's very possible that the small boy who rode his father's shoulders may forget to tell his son that he grew up in the mathematical center of the western world. In the shadow of Operation Motherhood, but chances are he will recall for him the tiny fireman's hat he wore and the shine of the truck and the sound of "The Star Spangled Banner," and probably he will be indulged in his sentiment.

COURT REPORT

Five Sentenced. Charles T. Mangum, 17, of 162 John Street was fined $20 for careless driving by Magistrate Theodore T. Tams, Jr. Mangum denied the infraction.

In other cases, Frank Pettit, Jr., 27, of 88 Galbreath Drive, was fined $15 for driving without a license and Bruce W. Sandwick, 18, of R.D. 1, $10, for having no registration in his possession. Both acknowledged the charges.

In criminal court, Lucius Bell, 25, of 116 Witherspoon Street was fined $25 for not being able to give a good account of himself. Bell, who had been drinking, showed up at Princeton Hospital Saturday, his head covered with cuts. He was unable to say what had happened to him or how he had arrived at the Hospital. Doctors used 29 stitches to repair Bell's head.

Sent to the County Jail in Trenton to await action by the Grand Jury, Anglio B. Gonzales, 49, 117 S. Stockton Street, Trenton, was apprehended by Patrolman John Chasko Saturday after Gonzales had tried to bribe Chasko. Gonzales attempted to press $10 into the officer's hand after he had been stopped at Witherspoon and Halfish Street and Chasko discovered he did not have a driver's license.

Gonzales was given a preliminary hearing in Borough Court by Magistrate Tams who set bail at $500. Unable to raise the money, Gonzales was sent to the County Jail in Trenton.

She's Opposed to Rockefeller.

To the Editor of TOWN TOPICS: In this week's edition of TOWN TOPICS, I have read the names of the illustrious persons who have recently announced their intention to back Mr. Rockefeller in the presidential campaign.

I am wondering how many of them know that Mr. Rockefeller evidently does not believe in the constitutional principle of separation of church and state. Governor Rockefeller recently signed a bill, passed by the New York legislature, which makes parochial school bus transportation at public expense mandatory throughout the state.

This new law comes as the climax of a long series of legislative concessions to Roman Catholic power. After New York's highest court had ruled that public funds could not be used for this purpose, a referendum was adopted to amend the state constitution.

How can he promise to support and defend the Constitution of the United States as president, when he doesn't support it as governor?

MARY CHARLOTTE MITCHELL
(Mrs. Herbert F. Mitchell Jr.)

Trucks Protested Again

To the Editor of TOWN TOPICS: I am releasing for publication a copy of a letter written to the commanding officer of the State Police Barracks at Princeton.

I wish to register my complaint along with Mrs. Knowlton's regarding the hazardous driving conditions created by the Kingston Trap Rock Company trucks. I commute to Princeton and pass the Trap Rock entrances off Laurel Avenue about 8:35 a.m. which seems to be a busy time for traffic. Not only do the trucks coming into the Trap Rock driveway not stop to let a car go by, but neither do the ones coming out of the drive make any attempt to stop and look at traffic, even though there is a stop sign there.

Furthermore, when a car is traveling on Route 518, going north or south, the trucks heading out of or into Laurel Avenue from Route 518 have absolutely no intention of observing the rules of the road and proceed right ahead without stopping.

Perhaps they are of the opinion that since their trucks are bigger than a car, the driver of the car will be afraid and let them do what they please; or, on the other hand, they may just be too lazy to apply their brakes and stop.

When a car is stuck behind one of these trucks going about 5 mph up a hill, the driver has the audacity to wave the car ahead, as if to indicate no traffic is headed in the opposite direction. This has happened to me several times and not only is it dangerous, but I believe it is also unlawful.

Now that this matter has been given publicity, you can rest assured that the men will be driving cautiously on the look-out for police observation. I hope the Police Department will not judge the existing conditions on this basis, but that they will find a way to put a stop to this menacing condition.

(Mrs. Alan Boyden Jr.)

Proposals to Be Studied

To the Editor of TOWN TOPICS: The Princeton United Community Fund is deeply appreciative of the sincere interest evidenced by Mrs. Howard Russell Butler, Jr., Mrs. Douglas Delaney, Mrs. Holmes Forsyth, Mrs. Herbert S. Langfeld, Mrs. Bradford B. Locke, Walter Van B. Roberts, and Mrs. Allen G. Shenton in their recent letter to the P.U.C.F. outlining suggested proposals that might be considered to strengthen the organization.

It should be recognized, that any organization such as the P.U.C.F., should welcome constructive criticism, suggestions, and proposals at all times, in its all-out efforts to better serve the community and carry out the functions for which it was established.

From the beginning of the Community Fund in Princeton in the late thirties, the organization has grown in stature through its recognition of basic fundamental changes brought about by transition in our economic, social and political life.

The past is a prologue to the future, and upon our experiences and our recognition of fundamental problems brought about by ever changing patterns of community life, the P.U.C.F. will continuously review and assess its operation to better discharge its duties to the community.

At a recent meeting of the P.U.C.F. Board of Trustees, certain basic operational policies were approved to strengthen the organization. The P.U.C.F. Board of Trustees will carefully review the proposals as outlined by the seven dedicated Princeton residents.

FRED M. BLATCHER

the face and then released.

Police said the accident happened when Mr. Finley momentarily turned his attention to his son sitting by his side and drifted over into the oncoming line of traffic there he was struck by Mr. Sperling. Both cars were extensively damaged and had to be towed away.

ELECT BOARD MEMBERS

At Miss Fine's School, R. Manning Brown, Jr., and Mrs. James Shriver have been elected to the Board of Trustees of Miss Fine's School. Mr. Brown and Mrs. Shriver, who will serve as alumni representative on the Board, replace retiring Board members Bernard Kilgore and Mrs. Mitchell Diehlman, the past alumni representative.

Officers of the Board for 1960-61 include Mrs. Barklie M. Henry, chairman; James I. Armstrong, vice chairman; Henry H. Patton, treasurer; Mrs. Daniel D. Dickey, assistant treasurer; and Robert Strunsky, secretary.

Other trustees are: Frederick B. Adams, Jr., Maurice F. Healy, Mrs. Douglas H. MacNeil, David B. Miller, MD., Mrs. Robert G. Potter, Jr., Mrs. Everett P. Tomlinson and Hibben Ziesing.

TO SPONSOR STORY HOURS

In Parks and Playgrounds, The Princeton Public Library's Children's Department is again planning to sponsor story telling hours in playgrounds and parks during the summer months. The program will run until September 2. The group of volunteers met at the Public Library to discuss plans for the story hour, assemble materials useful in story-telling, and to explore the different methods of telling stories at various age levels.

The 14-room structure, the former Skirm residence, has been renovated before it is occupied. The purchase of the building was made possible through a gift from the Whitney Children's Hospital, Rosedale Road, in memory of her parents, Grace K. and Edward S. Whitney. The building will be known as The Whitney Center.

The Child Guidance Center currently occupies space at 199 Nassau Street and is operating full-time. The group is supported by the United Community Fund. No major policy changes are envisioned for the Center when it moves to its new location.

TO HOLD CLAMBAKE
On Saturday, July 9, The Montgomery Township Volunteer Fire Company No. 2, which serves the Blairstown and Skillman areas, will hold its annual old-fashioned clambake on Saturday, July 9, from 12 noon until 5 p.m. The affair will be held at Johnson's Grove on Spring Hill Road, off County Route 518. Featured on the menu are clams on the half shell, clam fritters, clam chowder, fried oysters on the cob, hot dogs, hamburgers and liquid refreshment. All preparation and serving will be done by the firemen.

Tables and chairs will be set up under large tents so the event will be held regardless of the weather. Tickets may be purchased in advance but reservations are not necessary. Proceeds will be used for the operation and maintenance of the Fire Company.

SEVEN TO STUDY ABROAD

Under Fulbright Grants. Seven Princetonians, including three faculty members and three graduate students, have received U.S. Educational Exchange Awards under the Fulbright Act for study and teaching abroad next year. Assistant Dean of the College Hamilton Cottler, Fulbright Program Adviser, announced the awards. The three faculty members who have received the awards are: Dr. Marvin L. Goldberger, Higgins Professor of Theoretical Physics, who will lecture at Les Houches Seminar in France; Dr. John W. Milnor, Professor of Mathematics, who will serve as a visiting professor of mathematics at the National University of Mexico, Mexico City; and Dr. Albert E. Werbroeck, an instructor in the Department of Physics who will study at the University of Turin in Italy next year.

ADMINISTRATOR RETIRES

Served Princeton 14 Years. Charles K. Wallace, Director of the Work-Study Program and of Alumni Appointments in the Placement Bureau at Princeton University, will retire this week at the age of 65. He will live in Pescham, Vt., where he has had a summer home for a number of years.

Mr. Wallace, who served the University for the past 14 years, is a veteran of two world wars. His first responsibility at Princeton was to assist alumni veterans mustered out of service after World War II to obtain positions in business or industry. Mr. Wallace played a major role in developing the University's Work-Study program which finds summer jobs for juniors in their career fields.

A resident of South Orange, Mr. Wallace entered Princeton from Newark Academy where he was president of his class. He was a member of the Princeton class of 1918, but left at the end of his junior year. He served in the Navy during the war. He was a deck officer aboard the Cruiser U.S.S. Columbia during the first World War.

Prior to World War II, Mr. Wallace was active in the investment securities business in New York. He volunteered for service after Pearl Harbor, and was assigned to an attack transport in the South Pacific, retiring with the rank of Lieutenant Commander. It was in 1946 that he joined the Princeton Administration.

BUS DRIVERS TO RETIRE

Served Lawrence 31 Years. Mr. and Mrs. Wardell H. Seely of Lawrence Station are retiring this month after 38 years of service as Lawrence Township school bus drivers. Mr. Seely is planning to sell his bus contracts. The Seelys have a record of 38 years behind the wheel of school buses without a single accident. Mr. Seely has been active in Lawrence Township community affairs. The first president of the School Number Four Community Club, he developed the organization into an effective working group.

He served for more than seven years on the Lawrence Township Board of Education. Mr. Seely's first route was from Clarksville to Blackwood in 1922—a bus route he had ridden as a child from his Clarksville farm.

A graduate of the Blackwood School, Mr. Seely later attended Rider Business School. In 1925, when Lawrence Township School Number Four was opened, Mr. Seely transported the children—including his own son and daughter, from the Clarksville and Lawrence Station areas to the new school at Bakers Basin.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Seely are popular with the children they transported. Because they often carried the same pupils from the time they entered kindergarten until they graduated from Princeton High School, the Seelys have many real friends among their former bus-riders.

Because the Seely farm in Lawrence Station is famous for its fine crop of strawberries, the Seely riders and many of the teachers in the schools he serves have looked forward each spring to a special treat—fresh strawberries.

Mr. and Mrs. Seely plan to enjoy their retirement on their farm, taking time out for traveling. However, Mr. Seely has said he will be delighted to substitute as a driver if his services are ever needed.

Because Mr. Seely's son, Robert, plans to continue with the bus routes, the children of Lawrence Township will still be waiting for "Mr. Seely's Bus" each school morning in the years ahead.

O'HARA NAMED

To Borough Health Officer, Andrew O'Hara, 42, of 36 Cedar Lane is the new assistant to Borough Health Officer David T. Blake. He will start a training program designed to expose him to all phases of state and local health code enforcement.

Previously, Mr. O'Hara was a laboratory technician at the Forestal Research Center. An officer in the Princeton First Aid and Rescue Squad, he is married and the father of three children.

IN A TIME OF CRISIS, NO "SOFTIES": Mrs. Dorothy K. Couchman sees no evidence of this country becoming a nation of "softies," maintaining that in a time of emergency, it would be impossible to find "even one." For the replies of others (who are somewhat less optimistic over the current temper of our people's character), see below.

Question of the Week

Question: Is the United States becoming a nation of "softies," its people interested only in making money and having a good time?

Where asked: Public Library.

James L. Green, 688 Ewing Street, associate professor at the University, Dept. of Engineering: I feel that the country has moved somewhat further than it should have in that direction but the statement, as it is made, is too strong.

Mrs. Dorothy K. Couchman, 188 Nassau Street, owner of secretarial service: It's hard to say. Each generation tends to think that the one before it was soft but it seems to me that each new generation always comes out on top and does even better than the previous one. And let one emergency arise and you won't find one "softy" in the United States regardless of age. Everyone does his part. That's America; that's what has made this country what it is.

William Smith, Dayton, N.J., technician at the Forestal Research Center: I go for the first part—powerful, the whole lot of 'em—but not the second. Some times making money isn't so much fun.

Mrs. Gloria Stewart, S. Clinton Avenue, Trenton, research aide in the University's psychology department: Yes, I would say that is probably a very accurate description of what is going on. Actually, I don't think that is the main reason we have to worry about. I believe the most depressing trend is our tendency to accept the one-world socialist state we seem to be heading for. People are so materially inclined that they forget the basic values of life and the ideals the U.S. stands for.

George L. Mellor, 210 Hamilton Avenue, assistant professor at the University: I would say that people are probably interested in making money and having a good time. But I don't know if this necessarily means people are becoming "soft"; it may be that since material goods are becoming easier to acquire, people exert less effort in their daily work. I think this is evident in today's college student.

Mrs. Eva Schneider, 6 Madison Street, housewife and musician: Oh, yes. Start with high school. What are the kids interested in but clubs, extracurricular activities and sports. Studies just seem to be left by the wayside. And when they graduate and get married, they're still interested only in getting the latest model car and having a comfortable home with all the latest modern conveniences. There are so many things, I could write an essay on it.

L. M. Hadip, Graduate College, mechanical engineering student and a native of Turkey who has been in the U.S. eight months: It might be that you give a little too much importance to physical well being but I guess that is natural when you have such a high standard of living. I think, however, that your educational institutions should stress the other side of life.

Mrs. Orren Jack Turner, 39 Hamilton Avenue, housewife: Heavens, no, I don't think we're a nation of "softies." Look at what we did yesterday: we got those two satellites in orbit and that takes a lot of mentality. I think Ike's refusal to cancel his trip to the Orient took a lot of gumption. I think other nations would like to see us. We are a nation of "softies." Economically, this country is a first class, world leader. There is no question that other countries watch which way this country will move. They have to. Perhaps other people would like to see us be a moral and spiritual leader in the world but I don't think any nation is a leader morally. This country definitely, today, in 1960, is a world leader.

W. G. Mellon, 302 Henry Hall, member of University faculty: No, I don't think so. I suppose, at the end, our economy is trying to achieve a level where the people won't have to work so hard, have plenty of leisure time but will still be able to turn out an abundance of material goods. Consequently, it would be foolish for me to say that one of the goals we are working for is evil. The only danger, I see, would be an unwillingness by the people to make sacrifices if it were necessary for national defense.

David H. Morris, Pennington School, teacher: To a degree, yes. Moral concepts either don't exist or they're not as high as they used to be.

Mrs. Barbara White, 28 Linden Lane, housewife, here since April from Bristol, England: I think the people here are very much like the people at home. There are always a few who are interested in just making money but I haven't noticed that everybody in this country is like that. Most noticeable to me is that what we would term a "working class person," such as a lorry driver, the standard of living for a person similarly employed in this country is much higher. On the other hand, the standard of living is lower here than in England for people who are engineers, as is my husband, or who are similarly employed.

Donald T. Bryant, musical director at the Columbus Boy Choir School: I would say that many times the appearances on the

CLASS TEACHERS SPEECH

To correct lisps, Tongue-Ties, "Eethers are a thespian problem with me becauth I wear braces."

The second grade boy who came into the Township speech therapy class did indeed wear braces, but it was obvious to the therapist that his lisp had more complex causes than the steel bridges that filled his mouth.

He joined another second grade boy with a lisp, and a first-grade girl with a "lateral" lisp (she not only said "th" but whistled her "S"s sideways, too). The three lisps met their teacher for the first time last fall, and by the end of the school term, they were able to hiss out a pure "s" as well as anybody, when they put their minds to it. Work still remains, and perhaps the hardest part—making "S"s a habit, so that it comes out unconsciously on the playground, as well as consciously in the speech class—lies ahead, but the foundation has been firmly and substantially laid.

Speech therapy classes began formally in November at all four Township schools, and 179 children received help during the year. All Township children were given speech tests and children with defects were assigned to the special classes which met twice a week for about half an hour each time.

Life-long "wars" a Danger. Lipping is not the only problem, although it is one of the commonest. Stuttering, delayed speech, faulty articulation, deafness, cleft palate, so-called "tongue-tie," all of these are handicaps which therapists believe can scar a child's life. The boy who is jeered because his lisps may become the man whose lisp marks him as unmanly. The girl with slow speech who cannot properly articulate her "L" sounds may be tagged as mentally deficient.

The two speech teachers, Mrs. A. E. Vaurio and Mrs. Donald Purkey, use textbook methods and their own ingenuity to show children how proper sounds should be made. Mrs. Vaurio sits before a mirror with a first-grade girl who has a partially corrected tongue-tie, and some difficulty in listening, although her hearing is perfectly normal.

NOW, BLOW! To help children with cleft palates, speech therapy teachers in Princeton Township schools use all kinds of blowing devices. Mrs. Donald Purkey (left) holds a recorder which the children try to play, and ping-pong balls which they blow across a table. Her colleague, Mrs. A. E. Vaurio, practices blowing on a pinwheel. For additional information on the new Township therapy program, see story this page. (Staff Photo.)

They are working on "v", which the girl calls a "boal sound," because when you tuck your lower lip under your teeth and blow, it sounds like an ocean liner. Over and over, the girl and the teacher repeat the sound. Softly and slowly, the girl pronounces "live," "seven," "eleven," "twelve," then she moves on to "k", the "coughing sound." This little girl had to be taught to listen for sounds before she could articulate them. Mrs. Vaurio teaches her to "hear 'p'" by expelling the sound softly into her ear. They haven't reached the "s" sound yet, but the child has begun to say it correctly all by herself, simply because she has been taught to listen.

Some Teaching Is Private. Children like this little girl, and a boy who has trouble with "r", and another who has a cleft palate, are taught privately because their problems are specialized. Other children meet in groups of two to four.

Mrs. Purkey asks her three lisps whether they'd like to play a game called "Singing, singing." A shout of assent. She draws a big circle on a piece of paper and divides it into about 30 pieces of pie.

Taking turns, the children say "Singing, singing as I go, if I finish, I land on this," jinking their pencils in a pie segment, filling it in, and passing the paper to the next child. By the time the segments are all filled in, each child has said that "S" tongue-twister about a dozen times.

Fuel Oil gives you plenty in the way of home comfort and convenience. See us NOW, or call WA 4-0522 for your Fuel Oil needs.

A young girl with an "L" problem meets Mrs. Purkey all alone. Together they play a game with Mrs. Tongue, in which she "washes her side windows, scrubs her ceiling, sweeps her floor and dusts off the front porch"—that is, the tongue rubs the roof of the mouth, inside of the cheeks, floor of the mouth and sweeps around the lips.

This girl could not move her tongue at all in the game-exercise until Mrs. Purkey taught her. Now, she can move her tongue and pronounce her "L"s intelligently—when she thinks about it. This child, incidentally, has an intelligence level considerably above the average, but she might be taken for a sub-normal child because her speech was almost unintelligible.

To help children incorporate their new speech habits into everyday talk, Mrs. Vaurio and Mrs. Purkey teach poems and encourage recitations. The teachers are quick to praise, but quick to point out a mistake: "That was a terrible 's'! I could see your tongue!"

And the sheepish pupil will grin and say his "s" properly, tongue out of sight. It's mostly "he" and "his" in primary classes, by the way. Mrs. Purkey has five girls and 12 boys, and this proportion is fairly standard in all classes.

For examples of permanent success, the teachers must rely on the past experience of other teachers, because the Township program is relatively new. Mrs. Vaurio recalls a child whom she tested in the school-wide speech test last fall. She passed over the child as a normal chatterbox who did not need help. Later, she discovered that the girl had been for many months a pupil of Mrs. Leonard Newton in a pilot speech-therapy program begun the previous year by the school system.

Question Of The Week

 exterior would be that, but when the chips are down, the American people can stand on their own and take it. Everybody likes to have fun, but at the right time, everybody would do the right thing. However, I feel we always ought to be on our guard against becoming too self-satisfied and complacent.

Mrs. Anna Nannous, 28 Pine Street, housewife. The people in this country work harder and they play harder than they do in Scotland where I come from. Life is much easier in the United States. Everybody can afford all the luxuries and I think that may have a lot to do with it. But you can't call us softies, the fighting our boys did proves that. It just takes them longer to get mad than most people. In some ways, I think the whole thing is that people aren't interested in politics any more. Back in Scotland, the people are much more interested in politics and what is going on. They read a lot more. The people here leave everything up to the politicians.

Charles H. Rogers, 28 Haslet Avenue, naturalist. To some extent it's true, it does apply to everybody, certainly. However, I think, on the whole, we have too much soft living. We expect the government to do too much for us. This cradle-to-the-grave security isn't good. One of the best condensed bits of economic philosophy I know of is, "There is no free lunch."

"ACCEPTED WITH REGRET." Fred M. Blaicher, United Fund President, has announced withdrawal of Fund's newest member, Catholic Charities of Trenton.

tion by a religious agency of any denomination. "The objections were in no way directed at the Catholic Church or any particular church," Mr. Blaicher emphasized.

Following a meeting at which the Trustees of the Fund accepted "with regret" the withdrawal of Catholic Charities, Mr. Blaicher commented that "the question of whether any denominational welfare agency, whether or not it is providing service on a non-sectarian basis, should be included in a community fund is fundamental." He added that the whole community should consider this question in the coming year. The Catholic group announced its intention to support federated giving, made application to the Fund and was admitted in April. Both the Fund and Catholic Charities indicated that they do not consider the withdrawal permanent and expressed the hope that Catholic Charities will participate in future campaigns.

Review Asked. The statement announcing the withdrawal, issued jointly by the Diocesan Administrative Board and the Diocesan Lay Advisory Board, asked for a "serious review" of every agency presently in the fund, to insure that "only those agencies giving dollar value for total welfare services" are included. It said the review should include investigation of each agency's identification, program, resources, fee-schedules, duplication of services, administrative costs, unit costs, referrals and relationship to other agencies.

Mr. Blaicher, who made the point that the acceptance and subsequent withdrawal of Catholic Charities has been stimulus —Continued on Page 18 endowed University funds offered to second-year graduate scholars.

Dr. Osgood, the author of "The Voice of England," a literary history of England published in 1935, is an authority on the relationship between English literature and the classics. In 1905, Dr. Osgood came to Princeton as one of the 50 original teachers who initiated the "preceptorial system."

Dr. Osgood was English Department Chairman for eight years and in 1933 was appointed Holmes Professor of Belles Lettres, the University's oldest endowed chair. He retired in 1937 to devote his time to research and writing.

FUND LOSSES MEMBER
 Catholic Charities Withdraws. In a move described as "for the common good," Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Trenton has withdrawn from the Princeton United Community Fund for the 1962 campaign. The Catholic group, which joined the Fund only this year, reported that its action was to prevent losses by the UCF as a whole "from those who have indicated their unwillingness to support the fund because of the presence of our agency."

According to Fred M. Blaicher, Fund president, there appears to have been an unwritten agreement when the fund was formed in 1937 that no religious groups would be associated with it. Princeton residents who have been active in the Fund for many years have objected to participato the area, agreed that "every agency presently in the fund should be subject to a thorough review." All of us who are interested and engaged in community efforts in all areas of health, recreation, and welfare must be willing to re-examine and be re-examined continually in our efforts to best serve the public interest," he explained.

Both the Fund president and Catholic Charities stated their devotion to continuing community cooperation. In his statement, Mr. Blucher said, "We must accept the challenge presented by the Catholic Charities and in a spirit of community cooperation find the solutions to our common problems."

In a similar tone, the Catholic group stated its hope that it will find in the future "peaceful partnership in a community cooperation to bring the best to our neighbors." It concluded that differences and misunderstandings should be faced "to clear the way for progress and growth."

TRAINING WEEK PLANNED

For YMCA Day Camp. Under the direction of camp director Mrs. Ruth McVey, unit leaders, counselor aides and volunteer helpers will begin training for the YMCA Day Camp on Tuesday, Miss Ruthmarie Perry and Miss Mary Joan Marsh have been appointed to the camp staff as unit leaders.

A senior at Goucher College majoring in elementary education, Miss Perry has had experience in a camper and counselor and is proficient in both swimming and arts and crafts. Miss Marsh, a Junior at Penn State, is also studying elementary education and has been a girl scout camper. She has worked with the Lehigh County camp for crippled children.

According to Mrs. McVey, the staff and volunteers will spend the week beginning July 5 getting acquainted with the routine outlined by the camp director and her committee. There is still time to register for the first camp period.

Girls 6 to 12 are eligible and may register by coming to the YMCA office or calling WA 4-4825. The first period begins Monday, July 11.

WEST WINDSOR GRADUATES

Exercises Held. Eighth grade students of West Windsor Township School were graduated in the school auditorium. The Rev. Robert F. Good, First Presbyterian Church, Dutch Neck, gave the invocation and the Rev. S. Robert Weaver, Princeton Baptist Church, Penns Neck, pronounced the benediction.

Sheldon L. Moore, principal of West Windsor school, presented the class to the Board of Education and Arthur West, president of the Board, gave the graduation certificates.

It was announced at the ceremony that Patricia Bishop and Janice Carson, West Windsor graduates of Princeton High School, had received scholarships from the West Windsor Teacher's Association to pursue studies in the field of teaching. Miss Bishop received $150 and Miss Carson $100.

Graduates are:

JEAN MACKENZIE, WINNER

Of Auxiliary Club Award. A Princeton High School graduate, Miss Jean MacKenzie, has won the $50 Auxiliary Award presented by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Princeton First Aid and Rescue Squad. Miss MacKenzie will enter the St. Francis Hospital School of Nursing this fall.

The Auxiliary has also made a gift of a coffee urn and other stainless steel equipment to the First Aid Squad for use in the ambulances and rescue truck. It will meet Monday at 8:15 at the Chestnut Street Firehouse.

WINS SCHOLARSHIP

Awarded by Douglass Alumnae. Miss Hilde A. Hoge of Hopewell has won the first annual scholarship award given by Douglass alumnae of the Princeton area. A 1960 graduate of Princeton High School, Miss Hoge received the $100 award for outstanding achievement, scholarship and citizenship.

Money for the award was raised from proceeds of a pecan sale held last winter. The club plans to make the sale an annual event.

SUPERINTENDENT NAMED

For Lawrenceville Schools. Fred H. Combs, Jr., 2913 Main Street, Lawrenceville, has been appointed superintendent of Lawrenceville Township schools by the Township Board of Education. He succeeds Harry H. Pratt, who is retiring.

A lifelong resident of the Township, Mr. Combs has been in the Lawrenceville school system for 22 years as teacher, elementary school principal, junior high school principal and acting assistant superintendent.

Report from THE MAYOR

Safety—Western Style. Twenty-nine hundred miles of driving so far, produced a renewed sense of the diversity of this great country. Crossing vast open territory where 30 miles often separates settlements causes reflection on the contrast offered in Princeton, where urban renewal and planning must take place in a community where 92 percent of the land is built upon, and every attempt to ease traffic or pedestrian problems causes serious dislocation. Ideas which might well be considered in Princeton are plentiful along the American highway. In Oregon, Wisconsin, for example, the 35 mile per hour speed limit signs contain this legend: "15 miles per hour when children are present." Even more important, it was clear that the local motorists respected that policy.

In town after town, it was obvious that pedestrians had rights. Often motorists could be seen coming to a dead halt to show courtesy to men, women and children who had braved an intersection.

Our New Jersey traffic experts say it "can't be done," but countless communities out here have succeeded in moving traffic efficiently, and at the same time provided pedestrians with the safety of "wait" and "walk" signals.

Scene Note. Westerners are justifiably proud of the great natural beauty of this section of the country, and Councilman Dick Colman will be pleased to know that everyone out here shows appreciation and concern for trees!

When Mayors Meet. Meeting a colleague at the foot of Mount Rushmore for a 6 A. M. breakfast with students from 43 states and several countries who are working at this tremendous monument was a real experience. The Mayor of Keystone, South Dakota, is also employed by the local radio station over which we made a broadcast.

Governor's Conference. The Conference of Governors at Glacier National Park in Montana opened Monday on a note of interest to Princetonians—a re-appraisal of education at all levels. Educators pleaded with the Governors to establish a sense of urgency about providing the facilities for higher education enrollment that will triple in the next ten years.

Another Conference. An additional event of interest taking place in Montana is the Convention of North American Indians. Joyce Little Bull, age 10, is attending and chatting with the Mayor and his family. Joyce lives in a tarpaper shack on the plains and hopes she will be able to attend high school — her problems, too, center around housing and education.

The "Wild" West. Sgt. David Long of the Montana National Guard, while touring the Mayor and his family through a Black-foot reservation, remarked: "The West has changed — most of the Indians are now cowboys!"

A Real Reporter

Two and a half years ago, Mayor Raymond F. Maie announced that he planned to write a weekly column for newspaper releases. Despite occasional quick trips out of town, plus one flying six-day visit abroad, he never missed a deadline.

Last week, the Mayor and his family began an automobile trip west with the Democratic national convention in Los Angeles as their ultimate destination. En route, he planned to attend the Governors' Conference in Glacier National Park, Mont.

His intention had been to wire his column back to Princeton, but on Monday was informed that the high volume of newspaper copy being filed from the conference might delay receipt of his weekly report. So he telephoned it to Mrs. Jane McGrath, who typed and delivered it in time for Monday night's deadline. "Fortunately," Mrs. McGrath remarked, "I could take it in shorthand."

semester of the Princeton Adult School at its last meeting of the Adult Education Committee at the home of Mrs. George F. Thomas. The fall semester will begin September 22 with an open house at Princeton High School and regular classes will start the following Thursday evening.

The chairman of the nominating committee, Prof. Archibald MacAllister, has announced the makeup of the full committee. Included are: Professor John Martin, chairman; Mrs. Robert Dille, chairman of curriculum; George Loos, treasurer; Mrs. George Thomas, secretary.

Other members of the committee are: Mrs. Elmer Alpert, Miss Margaretta Barr, Mrs. Solomon Bochner, Prof. Clayton M. Hall, Karl Light, Miss Katherine Lyons, Mrs. Robert Murray, Miss Betty B. Preston, Mrs. Robert Setrell, Mrs. Earl Taylor, Mrs. John Turkevich and Prof. MacAllister. Representing Princeton High School is John Drulis.

TEACHERS NAMED

For Township Next Year. Appointments in the Township schools for 1960-61 have been announced by Mrs. Jess Epstein, president of the Board of Education. Vice-principal of Valley Road School next year will be Francis A. MacCambridge, a graduate of Boston University and currently assistant principal at the Pollard School, Quincy, Mass.

Mrs. Margaret Fredericksen of 183 Hamilton Avenue will teach kindergarten at Littlebrook. She has taught in Hopewell Township schools and in the midwest. Two new fifth grade teachers will be A. Ronald Rouse, who has taught at Cambridge, and James Eppolito, who has worked in the Trenton schools for the last five years. Mr. Eppolito will teach at Littlebrook, and Mr. Rouse at Valley Road.

Mrs. Blanche P. Sherman of 170 Terhune Road, Miss Betty Ann Erickson of Windsor, Conn., and Mrs. Carol Schieder who has taught in Kirkwood, Miss., and Lawrence Township, will be new third grade teachers. Mrs. Sherman has taught in New York City and Lawrence and Hamilton Townships. Miss Erickson is a 1960 graduate of Wheelock College, while Mrs. Schieder is a graduate of the University of Georgia.

Another 1960 Wheelock graduate, Miss Marcia Tuhill will teach a primary grade at Riverside. Mrs. Eleanor Van Vechten, a graduate of Douglass College, will join the Township school staff. She has worked for several years with the Edison Township schools.

A specialist in the school mathematics study group program, Marc V. Pierce will join the Valley Road faculty. A 1960 graduate of Trenton State College, he fulfilled his practice teaching assignment at Valley Road under Mrs. Ruth Law. The program is taught 7th and 8th grade students. —Continued on Page 22

Northampton, Mass. Among the 200 English teachers from public and private secondary schools, colleges and universities in the East who attended were Frank W. Bliss of Princeton University and John A. Myers, Jr., of The Hun School. Sponsored by the College Entrance Examination Board, the annual conference included lectures and discussions on the College Entrance English test.

James S. Thompson, 45 Park-week from Purdue University where he attended the annual meeting of the American Society for Engineering Education and was elected to honorary membership. The society cited Mr. Thompson "for outstanding contributions to engineering education in the development of and publication of textbooks and for years of service as treasurer of the society."

Mr. Thompson, who joined the society in 1911, was a member of its council from 1938 to 1950 and the treasurer from 1942 to 1950. Of the 37 members from the Princeton area, all but eight are members of the staff of the School of Engineering of Princeton University.

Louis J. Rieger, Jr., of Alexander Road, Princeton Junction, has been named for the spring semester Dean's list of the School of Education at Rutgers University. Mr. Rieger, a junior, compiled an average of 1.8 during the past semester.

Edward G. Thurber of Brook House, Lawrenceville, and E. Robert Feroholz of 406-C Devereux Avenue are listed among the 10 members of Princeton varsity and freshman track teams who have been awarded letters for the winter and spring seasons. Thurber, who holds the University record for the javelin throw, received a varsity letter, while Feroholz received a junior varsity letter.

The directions show — and we must confess that they show children — how you can do this with a partner, swinging the cord out in a wider arc to accommodate the two of you. Costs 98 cents. Good luck.

Pitch-back, as you probably know by now, is a net that pitches a ball right back at you if you throw it good and hard at the net. Looks like a large up-ended card table with tall nylon netting of a top. Believes that it is being pitched to earn Little Leaguers engaged in practice.

The Nudniks, who have appeared from time to time on ashtrays, matchbooks and other items, Zinder's presents, in white with black drawings, a Nudnik album with an appropriate front sketch which we shall leave for you to investigate; a locked diary entitled, "My Blooming Year and How I Grew It," and a package of greeting cards.

The Tub Foot Deck explains itself by title and all you really need to know is size. What we have here is a flexible plastic toy about a foot long, overall, and four or five inches high.

On its flat back there are suction cups which grasp the side of bathtub or swimming pool. Attach the Deck right at water level, and you have a regular hair marina, with three docks, fishing boat, cabin cruiser, speed boat, two rowboats with oars and a sailboat.

Each boat is about three inches long. The whole set costs $1, and you'll never get him out of the bathtub now.

dents in both Borough and Township.

Miss Judith Neese of North Plainfield, who graduated this year from Middlebury College, will teach French at Valley Road and Johnsons Park. Instrumental music will be under the direction of Frederick J. Zenne, who has been in charge of a similar program in Levittown, Penna. He will be in charge of teaching at Littlebrook, Riverside and Johnsons Park.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wallace of 194 Clow Avenue will teach first grade. A graduate of UCLA, she has taught in California and at the Chapin School here.

TEACHERS WILL STUDY

At University's Institute. Over 120 outstanding teachers from secondary schools and colleges in 31 states and two foreign countries are in Princeton this summer for six-week summer institutes in chemistry, mathematics and physics at Princeton University. The institutes are designed to stimulate superior teachers to provide leadership in their own institutions. The three-year program will run through August 5.

Dr. Clark E. Bricker of the University's department of chemistry will direct the chemistry program, which will consist of two 15-minute lectures each morning and a three-hour laboratory period three afternoons each week. Dr. Albert W. Tucker of the University's department of mathematics will direct the math program, which will emphasize the introduction into the secondary school curriculum of the study of probability. Dr. Aaron Leonovitch of Haverford will direct the physics institute in which teachers will discuss the new course developed by the Physical Science Study Commission.

Three teachers from the Princeton area have been chosen to participate in the program.

tend. They are Edward B. Barmann, Jr., physics, and G. Gerald Donelson, Jr., chemistry, both at The Hun School; and Curtis S. Hitechock, physics, The Lawrenceville School.

WATER'S JUST AS GOOD Ski Club Plans Outing. Members of the Princeton Ski Club, temporarily without snow, have scheduled a water skiing trip to Lake George for the weekend of July 9.

Ernest R. Gilmont, a member of the National Ski Patrol and a former professional ski instructor, has been elected president of the club. Other new officers are Miss Lore Jungst, vice-president; Miss Barbara Light, secretary, and Ray Hallows, treasurer. New members of the board of directors are Miss Anna Bosh, Frank Curran, LeBaron Foster, Brian Faughnan and Miss Janet Oliver.

YMCA PROGRAM TO OPEN For Summer Teens. The Summer Teens, a program for Princeton-area teenagers sponsored by the YM and YWCA, will be held at the Y building on Avaron Place through August 19. Registration can be made now at the Y.

Among the instructors for the program are Richard Lonahan, who will teach tennis on Thursday evenings; Conrad Guldrot, who will move with the weekly "jam" session, (also on Thursday); and Thomas Teng, who will teach ballroom dancing on Tuesdays.

On Mondays, Mrs. Constance Bonotto, an art teacher, will conduct a class in oils and charcoal, and Henry Drury will teach bridge. An instructor will also be on hand to teach sculpture and copper work in conjunction with Mrs. Bonotto's art class.

Mrs. Georgine Hall and Walter Sorg of the YM and YW staff will conduct the Friday evening activities, which include coed swims, "splash parties" and a formal dance July 15. Trips to a Yankee baseball game, the 22nd, to the Music Circus on August 3 and a beach party the 17th are included in the planned activities.

"AMERICA'S FUNLAND"

State Promotional Bureau Out. The theme of New Jersey's new 56-page vacation brochure is "America's Funland." A free copy of the brochure, "Vacation in New Jersey," may be obtained from the State Promotion Section, Department of Conservation and Economic Development, 529 East State Street, Trenton, 25.

There are over 100 full color photographs and useful charts depicting beaches, sporting activities, state parks and recreational facilities, historic buildings, summer theatres, and events of interest. Over 59 resort towns are listed in the vacation guide with the highlights of each, accommodations available and area transportation.

Added features in this year's guide include a mileage chart for the convenience of travelers from every part of the country, a detailed chart for fishermen showing where and when various species of fish are biting, and a map of New Jersey State forests and state parks for hikers. There is also a useful chart for boating enthusiasts using the Intracoastal Waterway, indicating in nautical miles the distance between marinas and harbors that offer a safe place to tie up.

ACTIVITIES REPORTED

BY NYA Day Camp. The first session of the NYMA day camp began this week, under the leadership of Walter Fullam. A total of 90, including 72 campers and 15 staff members, have been registered.

BUSINESS

In Princeton

NEW BUSINESS PLANNED

At 106 Nassau Street. A photography and art center will open in September at 106 Nassau Street in the building occupied for many years by Bill's Bakery. John C. Borden of Cold Soil Road said this week that he will operate the new business with Saul Libshon of Roosevelt. Mrs. Borden is also backing the venture as a stockholder.

To be known, according to present plans, as The Photography and Art Center, the new business will stock supplies of all kinds in these two fields. A gallery for the exhibition of outstanding photographic work, as well as various forms of art objects, is also planned. Instruction in the two fields will be offered. Mr. Borden, a Princeton resident since 1957, has long been interested in photography while following a business career. His primary activity has been as a director and assistant treasurer of Borden Mills, Inc., of New York. Mr. Libshon is a well-known free lance photographer whose work has appeared in numerous magazines.

BUILDING TO MERSHON

Under Terms of Will. Sole ownership of the 140-1/2 Nassau Street building has been acquired by Irving W. Mershon, real estate and insurance broker who trades as the O. H. Hubbard Agency. Mr. Mershon said this week that he had assumed title to the property under the terms of the will of the late Lulla M. Hubbard. The First National Bank was the executor.

The commercial property has a 50-foot frontage on Nassau Street. Hall's, Inc., occupies some 2500 square feet at No. 140, while Mr. Mershon's office has 900 square feet at No. 142. The Betty Wright Shop, at No. 144, has 800 square feet.

RESEARCH PARK BOUGHT

Acquired by Investment Firm. The Townsend Corporation of America, an investment firm with headquarters in Short Hills, has acquired the Princetownville Research Park Corporation. Princetownville owns a 476-acre plot of land in Lawrence Township. Townsend exchanged its common stock for 80 percent of the outstanding capital stock of Princetownville to gain control. re: Insuring Key Men

Every business has its key men—those whose "know how" and skill are responsible for the firm's success. A key man's death can mean a serious blow to the business and an immediate shrinkage in profits. Your firm can protect itself against this financial risk with Business Life Insurance. It supplies cash immediately to cushion the financial blow and to pay for a capable replacement. For information call...

and will be determined upon completion of an audit now in progress.

Several large industrial companies have already indicated interest in acquiring portions of the property for the construction of new research facilities, according to Morris M. Townsend, president of the purchasing firm, which is making its first venture into real estate. The research park tract lies between Route 1 and Route 206 and straddles Princeton Pike.

GETS NEW POSITION

With First National Bank. Miss Mary C. Dennen has been elected an Assistant Cashier of the First National Bank of Princeton. Her election took place at the June meeting of the Bank's Board of Directors.

A graduate of Princeton High School, Miss Dennen attended Miss Pollock's Business School in Trenton and has attended night school courses conducted by the Tricon Chapter of the American Institute of Banking. She has been employed by the Bank since 1942 and has been involved in all its commercial departments during that time.

LAND DEAL CLOSED

Lockheed Buys 210 Acres. Lockheed Electronics Company has completed its acquisition of 210 acres of land fronting on Route 1 in West Windsor Township. The subsidiary of Lockheed Aircraft Corporation announced the purchase earlier and plans to relocate its headquarters on the new site.

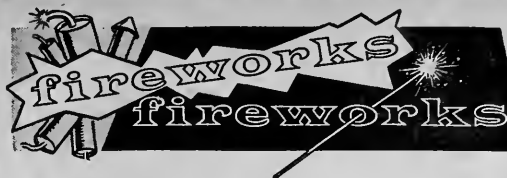

The firm, which has facilities in Plainfield, Metuchen and Bedminster as well as Los Angeles, does not plan to develop the property until 1961 when work will begin on the first buildings of a large complex. Lockheed will ultimately consolidate most of its New Jersey operations at the site, which is the old Arthur West Farm near Port Mercer and Clarkville.

In a message to D. F. Sanders, president of the firm, marking the closing of the transaction, Senator Clifford B. Case noted that the company's expansion in New Jersey "should add much to the state's prime status as the nation's research center." The actual property transfer took place in the firm's Plainfield headquarters.

FIRM GIVEN CONTRACT

To Design New York School. Fulmer and Bowers, Princeton architectural firm, has been selected by the Nyack, N. Y. Board of Education to design a new elementary school.

The firm has designed a high school and two elementary schools in the New York community during the past five years. Fulmer and Bowers designed the Littlebrook School, the Columbian Carlton Laboratories, the Westminster Choir College dormitory and other Princeton buildings.

AS THE PLAYGROUNDS OPENED: Hot-weather activities of many kinds were offered Princeton children as the 1960 playground season opened this week. At the top, Chris and Mary Alice Golden, who live at 46 Linden Lane, try out a slide at the new Grover Avenue playground. Loren Wallace, 191 Mount Lucas Road, and Johnny Gaudioso, 90 Birch Avenue, are content with the swings at the same location. A game of horseshoes claims the attention of Bruce Campbell, 105 Leigh Avenue, and Robert Kennedy, 129 Birch Avenue, at the Valley Road School. In all, ten such play centers will be in operation five days a week for the next two months. (Staff Photos.)

The second two-week period has been fully subscribed, but there are places available for the last two periods. Boys 6 to 12 will be accepted, with girls aged 6 and 7 to be placed in the Pa-poose camp.

During the present two-week session, there are 30 papoose boys and girls, and 45 older campers. Swimming, arts and crafts, cookouts, games and a trip to Washington Crossing Park will be included in the camp's activities. George Fowallitis is camp director.

The campers have been divided into tribes of ten children and a counselor, and are clearing and building individual camp sites. The development of the sites involves building, camp articles from native materials.

TRAVEL SURVEY PLANNED
By Penn Jersey Group. About 70,000 households in the Trenton-Philadelphia - Camden region will be interviewed as to their travel habits and transportation needs by the Penn Jersey Transportation Study, an agency set up by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, the Pennsylvania and New Jersey highway departments and certain counties in both states, including Mercer.

Each family to be interviewed during the next six months will be notified by the group as to the date the interviewer will call, and will be asked to keep a trip record before the interview. In addition to the interview program, the group will study economic establishments, public transit systems and truck and taxi movements, and will conduct roadside interviews with drivers.

The data derived by the surveys will be coded for processing on electronic computers, and "mathematical models" will be set up to represent the nine-county region's appearance under a number of different transportation systems.

MARITAL ADVICE OFFERED
By Planned Parenthood Group. A new service, that of marriage counselling, is now being offered by the Planned Parenthood Committee of Princeton, it was announced this week by Mrs. John Davies, president. A trained marriage counselor has been added to the staff of the committee office at 180 Nassau Street in order to provide this service.

She is Mrs. Haxel B. Froescher, a graduate of the School of Social Work of Bryn Mawr College, who was formerly associated with the Marriage Council of Philadelphia. Mrs. Froescher has been in private practice for the past several years and has extensive experience in Continued on Page 28

SPORTS In Princeton

DOUBLEHEADER SCHEDULED

Holiday Ball Games Planned. A July 4 doubleheader, as traditional a part of Independence Day programs as fireworks, has been arranged by the YMCA and B. E. Bergesen Jr., baseball commissioner. Princeton High School's Harris Field will be the scene of the action, with the first ball scheduled to be pitched at 1:30.

Midget All-Star teams from the National and American Leagues will participate in the first game of the doubleheader. Barney Houghton will manage the American entry, with the National directed by Frank Sieboth.

A game between the Junior League All-Stars will conclude the program. Sieboth, Robert Sinkler, James Wheeler and H. W. Boynton will serve as managers. The All-star game will open the Junior League season, with contests to be played nightly thereafter.

Opening ceremonies will include presentation of the colors and playing "The Star Spangled Banner." The games are open to the public without charge.

Under Bergesen's guidance, more than 300 boys from 9 through 15 are playing baseball in Princeton this season. A pre-league training program was adopted this year for nine years-olds.

Midget League activity was open to boys 10 to 12, with a dozen teams sponsored by various community organizations, while four teams in the Junior League draw from boys 13 to 15. About 45 men have provided leadership in the three programs.

THE BEST NUMBER to call for classified advertisements is WA 4-2201.

23 GAMES FOR TIGERS

Basketball Schedule Set. Although it is five months before the basketball season opens, Princeton University took advantage of the summer lull to make with its 1960-61 schedule. The Tigers will defend their Ivy championship next winter in 14 league games which should make unusually interesting going.

Whether these contests will tax Dillon Gymnasium's capacity is another matter. For two years now, Cappon has had his team in the thick of the Ivy race right down to the wire — winning the title last winter after barely being edged out at it in March, 1959.

Only once in those 14 home games was the gym a solid sell-out — and that was for the Cornell contest in February, 1959, which was nationally televised. Curiosity over the TV proceedings was responsible.

Will the degree of apathy that kept a relatively small gymnasium from being sold out while a team is taking dead aim on a championship continue? It's as hard to tell as it is to determine the reason for the rows of empty seats.

Situation Reversed. A year ago, Cappon began with one veteran and four big holes to fill. Next winter, his problem will be mathematically reversed, with four veterans returning and one senior lost by graduation.

The loss, however, is the biggest the veteran Tiger coach has known in many years, since the departed senior is Captain Jim Brangan. Brangan was largely credited with providing the calibre of play and leadership in naming the rest of his team at the start of the season — into a fascinating, dark-horse victory.

Next December, a veteran quartet of Captain Don Swan, Pete Campbell, Mike Burton and Al Klemmerlein (the latter ineligible for the last half of the 1960 season) will be joined by a fifth starter selected from among several possibilities. Indications are it will be an unusually interesting year.

The upcoming schedule will send the Tigers into the annual Queen City Tournament for the first time as part of their preparation for the Ivy campaign. The opposition will be two of the east's perennially top teams, Connecticut and host Canisius, and Drake, a mid-western quintet. Play will be at Buffalo on December 31 and January 2.

Other eastern leaders, notably Lafayette, Navy, Temple and Villanova, will provide December action, while the first trip to West Point to meet Army in a dozen years is set for January 28, 1961. The first league opponent is Columbia in early January.

The complete schedule:
Dec. 3, Lafayette; 6, Temple; 9, Navy; 12, Villanova, away; 18, Rutgers, away; 31, Queen City Tournament at Buffalo.

Jan. 2, Queen City Tournament; 4, Columbia, away; 7, Cornell, away; 13, Brown; 14, Yale; 28, Army, away; 31, Colgate.

Feb. 4, Pennsylvania; 10, Brown, away; 11, Yale, away; 17, Columbia, 18, Cornell; 24, Harvard, away; 25, Dartmouth, away.

BILL SMOYER VICTOR

In First YMCA Tennis Tourney. Bill Smoyer defeated George Smith, 6-2, 6-2, in the final round of the Boys 15 and under tennis tournament sponsored by the YMCA. The first in the series of tournaments under the direction of Richard Swinerton ended Friday with Smoyer winning over a field of 16 entrants.

In the girls 15 and under tournament, Elizabeth Kelly defeated Francis Mack by scores of 6-1, 6-0, to finish first. Six girls entered.

The second phase of the summer series began Monday and includes 28 players in Men's and Women's Junior division. This division is for the 18 and under age bracket. The finals will be played Friday on the University Courts.

On Tuesday, July 6, women's singles will begin at the Church Courts 4:30 and will continue through the week. Those interested in competing must register by Saturday at noon at the YMCA office or at the Courts' bulletin board.

Dates for future tournaments are: men's singles, Monday, July 11; mixed doubles, Monday, July 18; men's doubles, Monday, July 20. In each case the registration deadline is the Saturday before the starting date. The entry fee for adults is $1 and is used to defray trophy expenses.

SCHOOLGIRL WINS

In Goodwill Tennis Tourney. Sixteen-year-old Dede Shipway won her first adult tennis tournament Sunday when she defeated Mrs. Dorothy Katz, 6-3, 6-1, in the final round of the fourth annual Goodwill Tennis Tournament sponsored by the New Jersey State Tennis Association. Miss Shipway defeated Mrs. Matilda Davis, 6-1, 6-1, and Mrs. Laura Hayling, 6-2, 6-1, in earlier elimination rounds.

In the men's division James Cryan of Trenton won the title, defeating Herman Gluck, a Princeton graduate student, 6-3, 6-1. Gluck had edged Irwin Vas, 9-7, 6-3, to reach the final round.

A total of 24 persons entered the Goodwill Tourney this year, which ran for two days on Princeton University's Brookway Courts. The Witherspoon Tennis Club of Princeton acted as host during the tourney. Edward Holder, President of the State Tennis Association, presented gold-plated trophies to the winners and runners-up in each division at the conclusion of their matches.

COMPANIES 1 AND 3 WIN

In Police Youth League. Engine Co. No. 1 beat Hook and Ladder and Engine Co. No. 3 topped the Eagles to advance in the Police Youth Baseball League last week.

Tom Woods hit his second home run in the last inning to break a 9-9 tie and enable Engine Co. No. 1 to edge Hook and Ladder, 10-9. Bumpy Adams also hit a pair of homers and Tim Flood added another to help secure the victory. Sketch Donald was the winning pitcher.

Doug Watson and Allie Toto hit for the current to pace Engine Co. No. 3 in its 6-3 victory over the Eagles. Tom Callaghan won it for his team's third triumph.

ADVENTISTS TO MEET

Conference Set for Kingston. Some 3000 Seventh-Day Adventists from New Jersey are expected to convene in Kingston this Thursday for the opening of their annual summer conference. The 10-day meeting at Camp Kingston will include a number of speakers plus special features for all age groups.

Harold M. S. Richards, speaker and director of the national radio program "The Voice of Prophecy," will head the list of speakers at the opening night's program, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Appearing with Mr. Richards will be the singers from the program, including the male quartet known as the King's Heralds.

Also speaking during the first weekend will be Chris T. Sorenson of Singapore, president of the Far Eastern Division of the General Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists. Other speakers will include W. M. Adams of Washington, D. C.; Elder J. J. Miller, New Jersey Conference evangelist; Elder Melvin K. Eckenroth, president of the New Jersey Conference; and L. E. Lenheim, also of Washington, D. C., who will officiate at a special ordination service.

The general theme of the 57th annual conference of the New Jersey Seventh-Day Adventists is "Winning for Christ." It is under the direction of president Eckenroth, assisted by Tony N. Neergaard, secretary-treasurer of the state organization.

A special feature of the pro-

gram will be a Bible reading marathon for young people, scheduled to begin this weekend. Other speakers will include T. R. Gardner, treasurer of the Columbia Union Conference of Adventists; W. C. Moffet, former conference president of New Jersey and now of Hagerstown, Md.; and C. H. Lauda, president of the Minnesota Conference of Adventists.

BULLETIN NOTES

The Rev. Dr. Richard Luke, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Messiah, is giving three lectures at Concordia Theological Seminary, St. Louis, Mo., this week. He will return to Princeton after the Fourth of July weekend.

The steeple of the All Saints Chapel of Trinity Church will be raised at 9 a.m. Friday. Originally scheduled to be put in position two weeks ago, the steeple was delayed by "fabrication difficulties."

A group of foreign students from New York City colleges will be entertained at lunch this Saturday by the Kingston Presbyterian Church. Interspersed Christian Fellowship of New York is sponsoring the holiday weekend trip to Princeton and Philadelphia for about 40 students. They will split for lunch, with half going to the Church and the other half to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Engstrom, and then tour the University in the afternoon.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Straughan Gutter were guests of honor at a reception, held Sunday at Wyman House. The Rev. Mr. Gutter will soon assume the post of minister of the South Nassau Unitarian Church on Long Island. The trustees and council of the Unitarian Church gave the reception, with Dean and Mrs. Donald Hamilton serving as hosts. Mrs. Stephen Michael was chairman, and her committee included Mrs. Joseph Eicheloder, Mrs. Rene Braden and the Hamiltons.

The Young Adult Choir of the First Baptist Church will present the "Million Dollar Wedding" at 8 p.m. this Thursday in the lower auditorium of the church. Admission will be free, but an offering will be collected.

The First and Second Presbyterian Churches will combine this Sunday for the first Summer Union Service, scheduled for 9:30 and 11 a.m. at the First Presbyterian Church. The Witherspoon Presbyterian Church will join the Union Service beginning the following Sunday. Services will continue at the First Church during July, starting on the Second Sunday for August and the first Sunday in September. Ministers from all three churches will conduct services.

The First Presbyterian Church of Plainboro will hold its annual church school picnic next Wednesday. Transportation will leave the church at 9 a.m. for a day of outdoor activities at Olympia Lakes, near Levittown, N.J.

Obituaries

Mrs. Grace Titus Terhune, 68, of 8 Inglede Avenue, Pennington, died at her home June 24 after a long illness. The wife of R. Stanley Terhune, she was formerly a resident of Rosedale, and a member of the Ladies Aid Bible Class and of the Second Presbyterian Church, Princeton.

Surviving behind her husband are two daughters, Mrs. Jack Davidson and Mrs. Charles J. Hunt Jr., both of Princeton; Mr. and Mrs. S. Terhune Jr. of West Trenton, and three grandchildren. The service was held at a funeral home with the Rev. Dr. William L. Tucker, retired pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. James W. Marshall, pastor of the Pennington Methodist Church. Interment was in Princeton Cemetery.

Jay A. Murray, 48, of 50 Murray Place died June 22 in Princeton Hospital. For 18 years a foreman with the Public Service Electric and Gas Company, Mr. Murray was a lifelong resident of this area, serving at one time as president of the Princeton Engine Company No. 1. He was a member of the Squatters Club and Game Club.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Isabelle Duthie Murray; a son, Jay Dennis, and a daughter, Lynn, all of Princeton. The Rev. David L. Crawford, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, officiated at the service at the Kimble Funeral Home. Interment was in Princeton Cemetery.

Edmund A. Valera died June 15 at the home of his son, Arthur A. Valera, in Alexandria, Va. The father of Mrs. Ray H. Bryan of Rosedale Road, Mr. Valera had spent much of his life in Princeton in recent years.

Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Ralph E. Boynton, Atherton, Calif.; a brother, Osmond Valera, Kensington, Md.; and five grandchildren. Interment was in Rock Creek Cemetery, Washington, D.C.

Patricia Lynn DeVocchio, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan-F. DeVocchio of Skillman, died June 22 in Princeton Hospital. Surviving in addition to her parents are a brother, Daniel F. DeVocchio, maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Recker; her maternal great-grandfather, Daniel E. Sloan; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeVocchio and her paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Mary Ann Adams, all of Rocky Hill. The service was held at St. Paul's church, Interment was in the parish cemetery under the direction of the Kimble Funeral Home.

Jeremiah S. Black, 56, died in La Jolla, Calif., earlier this month. A former resident of Princeton, he was the son of Jeremiah S. Black and Isabelle Church Black, later Mrs. Edward H. Black.

Following World War II, he moved to La Jolla, Calif., where he worked for the Scripps Oceanographic Institute and the Navy Electronics Laboratory. He is survived by his widow, Gladys, and three sisters.

CARD OF THANKS

The Establishment of William H. Black wishes to acknowledge and thank appreciation the many expressions of sympathy and the many friends and customers.

MEN'S SOFTBALL STANDINGS

Sportsmen	W.	L.	P.
Princeton	11	5	.688
Green Gables	9	5	.643
Sannino's	10	7	.588
Teague's	8	7	.533
Circle Saw	7	8	.467
Leo's	4	12	.250
ICWU	0	14	.000

RACE NARROWS

As Three Teams Win Twice, A pair of the victors for three of the four first division teams during the past week served to narrow competition slightly in the Men's Softball League. The pace-setting Sportsmen won twice, as did Plainboro and Green Gables, but Sannino's split and Teague's lost its only contest to drop further behind.

Green Gables moved from fifth to third in the standings by taking a pair of close contests, 7-5 Wednesday against Circle Saw, and 6-5 over Sannino's. A two-run last-inning rally brought the first triumph, while another pair of rallies in the last inning against Sannino's meant the difference between victory and defeat.

Ros Watson hurled Plainboro to a 4-3 decision over Sannino's last Thursday, getting credit for a three-hitter as the victors jumped off to a four-run lead and then hung on. Tuesday night saw the league runners-up score four in the fourth and three more in the fifth to turn back Leo's, 9-2. Butch Chambers was the winning pitcher.

Meanwhile, the league-leading Sportsmen had it all their way as they raised their season's mark to a fine 12-3. Teague's was a 1-1 victory last week and Circle Saw took a 10-3 hammering on Tuesday. Seven runs in the first two runs, and one that one up, Harry Kahny was the winner of both occasions.

In a make-up game last Wednesday, Sannino's collected nine hits while trifling Teague's, 4-1, leading throughout after a two-run lead. (For a list of upcoming games, see Calendar of the Week, page 14.)

PAC SEEKS FIRST WIN

After a Tie, Two Defeats, The Princeton Athletic Club will be aiming for its first victory of the Tri-County season this Thursday night after a deadlock and two losses in its first three games. Montgomery Township will provide the opposition at 6:15 on the high school's Harris Field, while the tie against Hightstown-Cranbury will be replayed here next Wednesday at the same time.

South Brunswick defeated the Princeton entry Tuesday night, the strength of a grand slam, Bill Pagano. Starter Vince McCord was the victim of a five-run first, which also included a long triple.

Manager Steve Hogarty had a one day, scoring the first PAC run on a steal of home and then hitting for the circuit in his next turn at bat. Dick Berger's single and Bruce Sandvik's triple accounted for the losers' third run. Against Hightstown-Cranbury last week, Dick Olsen fanned seven for PAC and Bob Chibbaro got a pair of hits. The contest ended as a scoreless deadlock, however, necessitating a replay.

BEAVER LOSE FIRST GAME

In the Girls Softball League, in the eighth inning of the season, played on Bedford Field Monday, Dot Moore limited the hither-to-unbeaten Braves to five hits as ETS shaded the losers, 1-0. Also on Monday, on 95 Field, Thorne's strengthened his hold on the place by outgunning Ideal Beauty, 15-10.

ETS scored the game's only run in the sixth inning on successive singles by Pitcher Dot More, Jerry Meyer and Millie Trent. Defensively, Betty Koste played a fine game at shortstop for the winners. Beverly Muchlitt lost it for the Braves.

Thorne's batters raked Ideal Beauty's Meranda, and his and scored in every inning, including six in the fifth frame. Jane Harris Thorne's hit the state's only homer, Ideal Beauty, able to garner only four hits off three Thorne pitchers but took advantage of wildness to score eight of their 10 runs on two hits and eight walks. Marion Fugall was the winning pitcher.

The standings midway in the 12-week schedule:

	W.	L.	P.
Braves	5	1	.833
Thorne's	4	2	.667
ETS	2	4	.333
Ideal Beauty	1	5	.167

WILL HOLD HORSE SHOW

At New Hope Country Grounds, The New Hope Horse and Pony Show will be held Saturday on the New Hope High School grounds starting at 9. Many new classes have been added this year in both the horse and pony divisions.

The show is held for the benefit of the New Hope Community Association. Chairman of the event is Mrs. Bradford Green of Lakeland, Pa. with Mrs. Larry Miller of Lahaska, secretary. There will be two rings to handle the many events.

the field of marriage counseling. Mrs. Prosser will see clients by appointment only. Appointments may be made by calling the committee at 436-2100. In line with the committee's policy of making its services available to as many members of the community as possible, the fee for interviews with Mrs. Prosser will be based on a sliding scale of 50 cents an hour. The number of interviews will depend on the complexities of the problem.

PLATFORM PROPOSED

By Princeton Democrats, Lawrence O. Houston, Jr., of 73 Harriet Drive appeared before the Advance Hearing of the National All Democratic Platform Committee in New York to present the views of the Princeton club regarding the Democratic platform form for 1960.

The hearing was one of the 17 held throughout the country to receive platform proposals from Democratic organizations. Mr. Houston submitted the Princeton Club's contribution, which was discussed at the last regular club meeting.

Other members who drafted planks for the platform were John F. McCarthy, Jr., Edward Sweeney, Richard Lester, Norman Sprague, Jane McGrath, Richard Frost, Miss Esther Dillworth, Gordon W. H. Adams, Van De Velde, John B. Redding, Jr., William Marvel, Shaw Livermore, Melvin Gottlieb, Egon Loebner, Bryan Moore, Sidney Moss and Mrs. Lester Chandler.

IN CHOSEN "BEST DAD"

In Bamberger's Contest, Robert G. Donald, 35, of 7 Princeton Avenue, has been designated the "Greatest Dad" in Bamberger's "My Dad's the Greatest" contest. He was chosen on the basis of what his ten-year-old daughter Cathy said about him in a letter.

"Best of all," wrote Cathy, "he's a real good Dad." A native of Princeton, Mr. Donald is a graduate of Trent State Teachers College and a veteran of four years in the Coast Guard. He teaches industrial arts at Lawrence Junior High School and works during the summer with the Matthews Construction Company. A special policeman, Mr. Donald is a member of the Princeton Volunteer Fire Department.

Is there a more sensible way to select a MUTUAL FUND?

Today there are more than one hundred different mutual funds to select from. The objectives of some managements may be in line with your own; others will not. Before you decide ask for a free copy of "Understanding the Mutual Funds" our helpful 16-page booklet. It tells you about the various types of mutual funds, how your money is spread among many different companies in many different industries and discusses the advantages, risks and costs of mutual fund investing.

THRILL TO A NEW EXPERIENCE

*Makes nail care
a pleasure!*

with Diamon-Deb NAIL DRESSER

There's a new thrill in nail care in store for you when you glide the feather-like DIAMON-DEB Nail Dresser over your nails. Never before have you experienced the swift, yet gentle shaping action a level abrasive surface composed of countless tiny gem crystals can give to fingers or toes.

STOP NAIL SPLITTING AND PEELING!

What's more — Diamon-Deb prevents and corrects splitting and peeling nails. The secret is in the exclusive "DIAMALITE" surface that has no harsh edges which leave tiny indentations on nail ends, or cause nail layers to separate. No scratching or scraping or shock to sensitive nerves. And the pure nickel metal with its "DIAMALITE" surface is sanitary — can be sterilized without affecting its permanent outproof surface! Works equally well whether nails are steel hard or paper thin, too! Essential in cases of "problem nails" to preserve the nail benefits gained from taking internal preparations.

Come in and try this professional proven and endorsed manicuring miracle — particularly if you have a nail problem! Available in 3 sizes: 4-inch purse or pocket size $1.00; 6-inch general purpose size $1.25; 8-inch Professional model $1.50.
